MEMORANDUM FOR : Acting Chief, Intelligence School
FROM : OTR Orientation Officer
SUBJECT : Weekly Report for the Period
21 November to 27 November 1956

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

REGULAR PROGRAMS

1. CIA Introduction: On Monday, 26 November, this program was held for 43 people.

2. JFSO Program: Thirty-eight Junior Foreign Service Officers from the Department of State attended this program which was conducted on Wednesday, 21 November. As usual, this audience was enthusiastic, and the question period lasted beyond five o'clock.

3. Departmental Briefing: This program was presented on Tuesday, 27 November, for 51 persons who represented the Department of State, the Department of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, the U. S. Information Agency, and the National Security Agency. The Deputy Director of the U. S. Information Agency Security Office attended the last Departmental Briefing and was so enthused that the entire top echelon of his office was in attendance at this recent briefing.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Colonel Lawrence White will give the opening words of welcome at the special program to be conducted on Wednesday, 28 November, for executives of private industry and officials of the Department of Commerce.

2. The entire briefing of the new Commanding Officer at Fort Holabird (CIC) has been turned over to [redacted] staff.

3. [redacted] of the Medical Office will be given one hour instead of thirty minutes for his presentation in the Dependent' Briefing. This will be achieved by consolidating the presentations on U. S. Objectives and the Agency at Work, which I will present.

4. On Tuesday, 27 November, Mr. [redacted] OTR Security Officer, dropped by to discuss any security problems which we might have.
